

Stony Point to Provide Salesforce Training as Part of the Costa Rica PINN Program

MARATHON, FL – November 30, 2020 Stony Point, Inc. a Salesforce training and enablement company, announces their selection as a vendor for the Costa Rican Ministry of Science, Technology and Telecommunications (MICITT) PINN (Innovation and Human Capital Program for Competitiveness) Program funded with help from the Inter-American Development Bank (IDB). The program has the “aim of strengthening and supporting the country’s productivity growth by supporting advanced human capital training activities...” by providing scholarships to Costa Ricans who wish to train in technological areas.

Stony Point will provide two different Salesforce training courses beginning in April, 2021 and each course will run twice with the goal of training between 60 – 100 students during the program. The Diploma of Information Technology – Salesforce Administrator course will run April 5 – May 28, 2020 and again June 7 – July 30, 2020. The Salesforce Developer course will also run April 5 – May 28, 2020 and again June 7 – July 30, 2020

"The country of Costa Rica recognizes the value of Salesforce administrator training and Salesforce developer training for its citizens and its economy. Stony Point's inclusion in this program further solidifies Stony Point as a global leader in Salesforce training," said Stony Point President Steve Wasula. He continued "Salesforce.com estimates the need for an additional 4.2 million Salesforce technologists globally over the next few years. We're excited that Costa Rica has partnered with Stony Point to help address that need."

The Diploma of Information Technology – Salesforce Administrator training course prepares students for work as a Salesforce Administrator or Salesforce Consultant. The Salesforce Developer training course prepares students for work as a Salesforce Developer. Students interested in learning more about the program can visit <https://www.stonyp.com/costarica>.
